HOUSING PROJECT FINDS FAVOR HERE

Seen & Heard Around Murray

We heard of an instructor out at the college this week who urged the students taking a final examination to think for at least five minutes before answering an essay question.

The urge and probability too, in many things is to jump in without properly fixing the direction in which we are going.

There is a great need for some thinking today on the part of everyone. In things like voting for instance. Many people will listen to a candidate making a speech and believe every word he says and never question his motive or his integrity. We mean some candidates, not all of them.

In the matter of voting, as in the matter of making many decisions, some real honest to goodness thinking pays off.

Kentucky Business, the official publication of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, corrected an error that many noticed in their last publication. They had Bethel Richardson's picture captioned with the name of Judge James Secrest, and Judge Secrest's picture with Bethel's name under it.

At any rate Bethel got his picture in last month's and this month's publication too.

Larry Dunn, Joe Green, Ronnie McCage, Bill Young, John Vaughn and Wayne Mathis inspected a scale model of the Explorer rocket in Lexington this week at the 4-H meeting.

Sandra Bedwell who placed second in the nation in cherry pie making competes in the Lexington making contest at the 4-H meeting.

Paul Lyne stays in Murray we understand. Many Methodist ministers are moved about at the annual conference.

We hope that widening of North Fourth street will get underway soon. Water has washed away the foot of the hill just down from Perry's service station. A big truck could break through at almost any time.

Two or three feet on each side of the street would make much to the street surface and prevent many of the traffic tie-ups which we now have.

Congratulations are in order to the many ladies who put in time and effort on the girl scout movement in Calloway County. We understand about three hundred girls are engaged in some phase of Brownie, or Girl Scout work.

This helps to fill a gap in organized recreation for the girls.

ATLANTA (UPI) — An 18-month-old boy died Friday night from injuries inflicted by his father, a day after another small child died here under similar circumstances.

Police said the boy, John Robert Campbell, was covered with bites and belt marks, Hulen Campbell, 25, Roswell, Ga., admitted he beat his son with a belt. "Then I got mad and bit him—I bit him all over," Campbell said.

Truck Driver Is Killed In Accident Here

Wayne Edward Duncan was killed yesterday afternoon after receiving severe injuries as a result of a truck accident.

The accident occurred just south of Murray on the Hazel highway about 4:00 in the afternoon. Police report that Duncan apparently lost control of his truck and careened into the abutment of the Clark River bridge. It is believed that Duncan was thrown out of the truck and that in zig-zagging back and forth across the bridge, the truck ran over him.

A passing motorist discovered the accident and called the Murray City Police. The police here notified State Trooper Guy Turner, who went to the scene at once.

Mr. Duncan was taken to the Murray Hospital where he died within a few minutes after admission. Death came as a result of internal injuries and excessive loss of blood, police indicated. His body was removed to the Max Churchill Funeral Home.

Jack Bryan Renamed To Head Murray Gas System

Jack Bryan

Jack Bryan was re-employed last night as the Superintendent of the Murray Natural Gas System. His contract with the city expires on the last day of this month.

Bryan was employed until December of this year so that his tour of employment will coincide with the employment of other city employees.

Bryan arrived in Murray while the gas lines were in the process of being placed in the ground and has been with the system since that time.

He has placed the system on a paying basis after two years of operation, with one of these years, actually being only half a winter.

Part of the city received gas in October of 1956, however the other half received gas after cold weather had arrived in the winter of 1956.

The system operated the full winter this past winter. The Murray Natural Gas System has acquired much equipment, has been continually installing gas lines to users, has installed several large installations.

Williams Drills Grand Slam Homer In Game Last Night

The Orioles defeated the Phils 6-2 and the Indians beat the Dodgers 11-7 last night in the Pony League games at the city park.

Rayburn was the winning pitcher in the first game and Taylor the loser. Grogan blasted the way for the Orioles with two homers and a single for three runs.

Williams drilled a grand slam home run and Hutson pounded off two triples but in vain as the Dodgers fell to the Indians 11-7 in the second game.

Williams also connected for a single, and Greenfield picked up one hit for the losers.

A steady barrage of hits paid big dividends for the Indians as J. D. Weatherly, Workman, H. Weatherly and Thompson got two hits each. Blackburn, Wallis, Shoemaker, Adams, and Gibbs each picked up a single.

The Indians and the Orioles are now tied for first place in the Pony League. The league is idle until Monday night when the Indians battle with the Phils for the first time and the Orioles clash with the Dodgers.

Low Rental Housing Project Urged At City Council Meet

A large delegation of Negro citizens appeared before the city council last night to voice their opinions in regard to the low rental housing project, toward which the city has been working for recent weeks.

The general feeling among the delegation was that the Negro population of the city is overwhelmingly in favor of the move. Pete Rutledge told the council that the delegation's purpose was to express to the council their desire for the low rental housing project. He indicated the wholehearted support of the Negro population of the city in the acquisition of such housing.

Lloyd Arnold told the council that the housing project was of interest to his people because sanitary conditions would be immeasurably improved and the general living conditions would be uplifted. He said that he felt that most Negroes would be in favor of the housing project. He estimated that at least thirty and forty families would avail themselves of the housing if possible.

Emanuel Rowlett told the council that average rent now paid is between $12 and $15 per month and that approximately 20 per cent of the Negro population has regular employment.

Ten Negroes were present for the council meeting.

Mayor Holmes Ellis told the delegation that all measures were being taken to acquire the low rent housing. Mayor Ellis read a letter from the Chamber of Commerce extending their cooperation in getting this type of housing for the city.

Mayor Ellis told the council that a Housing Commission would be set up composed of two Democrats and two Republicans all approved by the council, and the mayor. The city would put streets into the housing project and would bring utilities to the project.

A motion was made for the city to proceed with all steps necessary to obtain the low rental housing as quickly as possible.

A hearing was held recently with representatives of the government in Murray, to discuss

Three items were passed by the city council last night which will be of particular interest to citizens of Murray and to those living outside Murray but who work within the city.

A duplicate city sticker will be issued, when the original is lost, or is left on an automobile which is traded, but the applicant will pay a 50¢ fee.

All people who work inside the city limits of Murray must purchase the city auto sticker. This ruling is rigidly enforced in surrounding towns, however Murray has a never enforced it before.

The council made it plain last night that Calloway farmers who raise produce can sell it in Murray without any type of license. Present licenses cover persons who retail produce as their principal business.

The housing and what requirements would be necessary in order to obtain it.

The Murray Planning Commission, which has been in operation for several months, has laid the groundwork for the acquisition of the low rental housing. One of the largest steps in the series pre-requisites, is the zoning ordinance, the land use map and the base map of the city. All of these items have been accomplished by the Planning Commission and will be ready within one week.

The city also has to adopt a building code, an electric code and a plumbing code which is to be enforced as the present gas code is enforced today.

The council last night turned down the insurance program offered by a private insurance company which is sponsored by the Kentucky Municipal League.

The council voted to accept the bid of Dr. F. E. Crawford, Nix Crawford, and Margaret G. Crawford for the present city hall property. Their bid was $27,600. The city is to pay a monthly rent of $230 as long as they remain on the property.

The mayor was authorized to write a letter to the Fiscal Court thanking them for their cooperation.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Casey Stengel, old "old professor," can count another record today in 1958. Stengel was two hits short of the record for most wins by a manager in the National League, where 65 alternately happy and disconsolate directors of the double play bowed in and out. The top dugout decorator was the St. Louis Browns-Baltimore Orioles who, since Stengel was a novice at Brooklyn, have had 12 pitchers.

Old Casey has outlived 47 other major league managers during his decade in the house that Ruth built.

This may not stop many presses, but it points up once again the fact that being a major league manager is an occupation where continued employment is rightfully notorious for being on the short side. Some shippers might be noted, have been canned after finishing first. Whether Casey's artful manipulations of his brawny talent or the accrual of same by the front office is responsible for the Yankee successes won't be debated here. But when it comes to managers, nothing succeeds like success.

Casey Has Traveled

Old Casey, the left-handed dentist from Kansas City, is wrinkled proof of that. To further the point, let it be recognized that the guiding genius of the competing Yankee athletes is along with Marty Marion—one of the champion commuters among various dugouts.

Marion holds the laurels over the last decade, having been boss man of the bench with the Cardinals and, over in the other league, with the White Sox and Orioles. Three jobs is the most for the last 10 years. But Casey did his share of traveling, too, before he became the gifted manager of this era. He managed at Brooklyn from 1934 to 1936 and piloted the erstwhile Braves of Boston from 1938 through 1943.

National Holds Record

A total of 125 managers has come and gone since Stengel accepted the reins at Brooklyn in 1934. Whatever Happened To

BOB CHAPPUIS

By United Press International
Bob Chappuis, an all-American halfback at Michigan in 1947, was the ideal "do everything" type for the dippy-doodle single wing attack devised by Fritz Crisler. He could run, kick, pass, and think—talents Crisler exploited to the fullest. In the 1948 Rose Bowl game against Southern California, Bob led his Michigan mates to a 49-0 victory by flipping two touchdown passes, passing for a total of 188 yards on 14 completions and he rushed for 91 more in 13 carries. Chappuis played briefly for the Brooklyn Club of the pro All America Football Conference but retired when the league went out of existence.

Whatever happened to Bob Chappuis? He now is in the electrical appliance business at South Bend, Ind.

Harold Hecht produced the film for Hecht-Hill-Lancaster and United Artists. Release, Robert Wise is the director.

The Redbirds Aren't Dead Yet; Torrid Pace Of St. Louis Cards Results In Pennant Contention

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
Those Redbirds aren't dead birds after all.
A 714 pace since May 7 has brought the St. Louis Cardinals surging back into National League pennant contention. They were in last place with a 3-13 record exactly one month ago, they're only four games out of first place today after a 3-1 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Sam Jones stretched the Cardinals' latest spurt to four games with an overpowering 12-strikeout performance that's tops in the league for this season. Jones, who hadn't won since May 16, leads the NL with 66 strikeouts. The victory moved the Cardinals over the 500 mark, with a 23-22 record, for the first time this season and enabled them to gain ground on both front-runners — the first-place Milwaukee Braves, who lost to the Los Angeles Dodgers, 4-3, before 54,639; and the San Francisco Giants, who bowed to the Cincinnati Redlegs, 5-4. The Chicago Cubs whipped the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-1 in the other NL game.

Yankees Win
The New York Yankees, meanwhile, restored their American League lead to 8 1/2 games with a 6-5 win over the Cleveland Indians as Mickey Mantle hit two homers, and Bob Turley won his ninth game. In other games, the Baltimore Orioles swept the Kansas City A's, 2-1 and 3-1, the Detroit Tigers walloped the Washington Senators, 11-2, and the Boston Red Sox shamed the Chicago White Sox, 3-2.

The Cardinals, who have won eight of their last nine and 20 of 28 since their May 7 low-point of the season, scored two runs in the fourth inning on two singles, a walk, an error and an infield out and added another in the fifth when Stan Musial's sacrifice fly brought in a tally.

Don Zimmer's ninth-inning homer gave the Dodgers their third straight decision over the Braves and handed relief ace Don McMahon his first loss after five victories. Bob Rush carried was Hoof's first victory since May 10. Marty Keough's eighth-inning sacrifice fly brought in the winning run for the Red Sox and dealt the White Sox their fifth defeat in seven games. The Delovik won his second game for Boston and Gerry Staley lost his fourth for Chicago.

Willie Mays raised his average to .433 with a 3-3 night but the Redlegs won on a five-run sixth-inning rally featured by Jerry Lynch's three-run homer. Willard Schmidt shut out the Giants for the last 5 1/2 innings for his second win.

Dick Drott struck out 10 Pirates to win his third game for the Cubs, who had nine hits including a triple and double by Ernie Banks. Vern Law suffered his fourth loss against five victories for Pittsburgh. Turley raised his record to 9-1 after pitching out of a bases-filled, one-out jam in the ninth. Mantle's two homers, Nos. 9 and 10, knocked in four runs and Bill Skowron's two-run single produced all New York's runs.

Connie Johnson pitched a seven-hitter and Bill Pappas a four-hitter for the Orioles, who got their winning run in the opener on a triple by Billy Gardner and the decisive tally in the nightcap on Gus Triandos' homer. Alex Kellner and Ray Herbert were the losers.

Johnny Groth and Gus Zernit hit two-run homers and Billy Hoof pitched the Senators' losing streak to three games. It

After TKO Akins Desires Basilio Bout

By JACK CUDDY
United Press International

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Cockey Virgil Akins, the explosive new welterweight champion who floored Vince Martinez nine times for a technical knockout title triumph said today, "I'd like to defend against Carmen Basilio in September."

Truman Gibson, president of the International Boxing Club, agreed with Akins that a defense against ex-welterweight and middleweight champion Basilio would be a "natural."

Gibson said, "We'll know in a couple of weeks whether Sugar Ray Robinson will defend his middleweight title this year against Basilio. If he doesn't, we'll try to match Akins and Basilio."

Akins of St. Louis gave boxing a robust shot in the arg with his "ynam" performance Friday night as he won the vacant world 147-pound crown by scoring a fourth-round TKO over Martinez, who never had been stopped before.

Many of the 9,777 fans in the warm St. Louis Arena regarded 30-year-old Virgil almost with awe as they cheered his victory when referee Harry Kessler stopped the fight at 52 seconds of the fourth round.

At that time, the blood-smeared New Jersey contender lay trampled by a herd of elephants. Kessler did not even count over him. In fact Kessler had started to wave his hands in the "that's all" signal as 29-year-old Vince was plummeting toward the canvas.

Each fighter weighed 146 1/2 pounds when they started the scheduled 15-rounder, and Akins was favored at 2-1 because of his aggressiveness.

tion in the widening of the streets around the court square.
The court recently agreed to deed twelve feet of the court yard from the present curb, so that the streets could be widened.

The council passed the first reading of an ordinance amending the present privilege license ordinance.

The council voted that no house or business in the city be served with utilities until a building permit had been applied for.

Police Chief Charlie Marr and City Patrolman James Witherspoon will attend the police convention on June 23, 24 and 25 in Lexington, Kentucky at the Phoenix Hotel.

The Murray Baseball Association was granted permission to construct a concession stand in the city park.

Parking problems were discussed by the council and Mayor Ellis and Police Chief Marr were asked to resolve two of them.

The city will install four fire lights to control the traffic in the event of a fire. The lights will be placed at the corner of Fourth and Poplar, Fourth and Maple, Fifth and Maple and Fifth and Poplar. The lights will show red only to keep traffic out of the block around the city hall until the fire trucks have left the area.

The council decided that it would be the responsibility of the family to remove flowers and floral arrangements from the graves of the deceased. Cemetery employees will remove flowers, but not until notified by the family. This ruling was instituted because of the varying lengths of time that families desire to have the flowers left on the graves.

New Dress Lines

By SUSAN BARDEN

NOT since the "new look" of a decade ago has there been such a furor about feminine fashions. There's the question of whether to be seen, or not to be seen, in the chemise, the trapeze, or the long-torsoed short-skirted sack. Will Friend Husband say "Take it off!" or will acquaintances think you are a style plate?

Beautiful Compromise

Well, some designers who have a feeling for those of us who wish to be well-dressed without going to extremes, have made a beautiful and chic compromise in these controversial silhouettes.

Here are three examples, all smart and wearable.

The first is a sleeveless sheath which can be worn with or without its matching belt. With it is a tapestry overblouse which makes the costume really two dresses in one.

A second dress also comes with a self-fabric belt to nip the waist if the long line seems too severe for a conservative date. The skirt is permanently pleated.

Then there's another double-duty combination consisting of a chemise frock with a matching middy top.

HERE'S a rattle outfit, a dress with an overblouse.

THIS silhouette gives a lean, straight look to the figure.

IN A VERY seaworthy fashion, this middy overblouse with navy trim tops a sleeveless chemise dress with a V-neck.

Ewald Proposes New Shows For Television For Change

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI) — I've been looking over the tentative fall schedules of the three networks and I find they contain the usual fare—Westerns, situation comedies, quizzes.

Frankly, the situation disturbs me. But I don't think the season has to fall into the same old rut — a few new program ideas would fix things up fine. In the interests of better programming, therefore, I have compiled the following possible formats for TV shows next semester:

"The Places Show" — I see this as a one-man assisted by one Atlas type show. The idea is for him to call out places — Minneapolis, Detroit, Tulsa, O., Chever, Ravine, Kanda Kanda, Belgian Congo—and then let the studio audience applaud. That's all.

"The Awards Show"—an entry that would take care of all the trophies, plaques, medals, statuettes, certificates, ribbons, decorations, garlands, crowns, citations, honors, titles, cups, saucers and gold records ordinarily bestowed upon performers each week on their own programs.

"The Coming Attractions Theatre"—This one would be a drama show made up of all those scenes played at the end of "Playhouse 90," "Climax" and "Studio City." It's a capsule what's coming up the following week. They're usual the best part of the upcoming script anyhow.

"The Vaughn Monroe Show"—one half hour of Monroe dropping radio.

"The Plub Show"—in which stars would parade on stage to puff their latest movies, books, plays and to make jokes about commercial products that aren't their sponsors. I see Bob Hope a semence.

"The Sound Track Show"—made up of the greatest canned laughs from filmed situation comedies.

"The Egghead Show"—Italian and Japanese movies.

"The Super Egghead Show"—Italian and Japanese movies with French titles.

"The Postcard Show"—a once-a-month entry in which all the home participation quizzes like "The Price Is Right," "Dodo" and "Treasure Hunt" select a viewer to whom they can send all their used postcards.

"The Horror Show"—made up entirely of stomach acid commercials.

"The Break-Up Show"—Eddie Fisher who has muffed his lines after watching Steve Allen giggle when Sid Caesar coughed as a result of Frank Sinatra mumbling under his breath in Italian because Pat Page forgot the words to an introduction. I should again that it was all caused by Perry Como who misread his cue cards.

"The Stars Strike Back Show"—In which TV critics poke their heads through a 21-inch hole while performers throw typewriters at them. I see this as a spectacle.

Short Shot: It was bound-to happen, didn't it? Tuesday night a contestant on NBC-TV's "Treasure Hunt," a citizen of New York, won an all-expenses-paid trip to New York. Debbie Reynolds, who guested on the NBC-TV "Eddie Fisher Show" Tuesday night, blotted out her husband, Oscar Levant was on hand, too, and I must say it's satisfying to watch a disruptive force at work in a show ordinarily made up of milk-and-water. Margaret Truman turned in a charming guest stint with Johnny Carson on the NBC-TV "Jack Paar Show" Tuesday night—poised, assured and non-giggly.
